

Are you interested in becoming a
Harvey County

Master Gardener Volunteer?

Learn about soils, pest identification and control, vegetable gardening, fruit, lawn care, landscape design, plant material selection, flower gardening, indoor plant care and water gardening.

These classes are taught by K-State Research & Extension faculty and the County Extension Horticulture agents and other qualified experts.

Classes held on Thursdays beginning in September and running through December.

Cost $110

Enrollment deadline—August 25

For more information contact:

Scott Eckert, Harvey County Horticulture Agent
316-284-6930 or email seckert@ksu.edu

K-State Research & Extension Harvey County

PO Box 583, 800 N. Main, Room 11
Newton KS 67114-0583
316-284-6930 Fax: 316-283-6183

K-State Research & Extension is an equal opportunity employer & provider. K-State Research & Extension is committed to making its services, activities & programs accessible to all participants. If you have special requirements due to physical, vision or hearing disabilities, please contact Scott Eckert at 316-284-6930.