The rest of the 8 weeks we will be doing a point system again and I will be asking you to post to Facebook for chances to win in a drawing. These are daily and weekly challenges that you can earn points and chances to win. To keep track of what you have accomplished go to <https://tinyurl.com/walkkansas2018> and fill out the short form.

I will be keeping track and we will announce winners at the end with Facebook live! So make sure you follow our Facebook page. See below for points/chances and how you can win!
